- 4. Meeting with President McGrath Updates
 - a. Standing meeting with President/ President Elect
 - i. Things are about to become contentious regarding return to campus. In Tim's eyes, it is a step by step. As far as he reads it October 4, tim is expecting everyone on site 100%. No discussions about adjusted schedle until back on campus for months. Knows it will be a Union discussion.
 1. Other areas are also getting hard information to come back, but need to know for sure.

- ii. Ben- Making sure everyone is on the same page with concerns that they are hearing.
- iii. Went over Goals with Tim. His idea was to try give out $100 per student. Look at the endowment. Try to get inward facing. So that the dollars stay at GWC.
- iv. SRP effects- Workload- Going to change the home and answering emails.
- v. Partnering with HR director on PD. Looking at current classified.
- vi. What are Tim's goals-
 - 1. Stay within budget- reminded him that spending is not up to Classified.
 - 2. Enrollment- Big push for enrollment management Reestablish relationships in the community with increasing numbers of students.

5. Meeting with Chancellor Weispenning Updates

- a. Chancellor is tired of the periferal stuff.
- b. Very concerned about COVID numbers
 - i. Hopes not to have to return the mask mandate.
 - ii. District Social Media campaign to encourage vaccines. Both informational and to encourage our students to get vaccinated.
 - iii. Return to campus plan- is it a step by step plan or an exact roadmap- he is aware of the hard tone. It's because the institutions get his harder than the District does.
 - iv. Brought up the vaccine mandate- entry criteria for CSUs and UCs, we don't have that. Is the impression that we would take a bigger hit enrollment wise. It is CCCCCO Decision.
 - v. Return to campus plan- What was Dr. W. say?
 - 1. October 4- staffing can except 75% 5 days a week.
 - 2. It CAN , not it IS.
 - 3. Goal of the RTC plan- that by October 4, 5 days pre pandemic.
