10 Things In Common

We will now break up into 4 small groups.

7 minutes: First introduce yourself and share your role at GWC.

Next, in your group find 10 things you all have in common....yes, 10!

We will share out!

We will rotate!

Objectives for the Day

At the end of today's session, NFA participants will be able to:

- Learn the goals and overview of the New Faculty Academy
- Access campus resources and tools required for the start of each semester
- Prepare for day 1, week 1, and month 1 of teaching students
- Identify a meaningful reflection tool that you can use throughout the NFA and future practice

Teaching: Day 1, Week 1, Month 1

Small Group Discussion: In the next 5 minutes, consider each of the timelines below.

- First day of class
- First week of class
- First month of class

With your small group, please discuss/chart on your large post-it strategies and actions for ALL of the timelines above as they relate to:

- Building relationships, community, and a welcoming and safe classroom
- Setting expectations
- Creating excitement around your subject and student buy-in
- Tenure self-study form (zoom support with Erin if needed)
- Anything else?

Ongoing Reflective Tool

A large part of our academy will be centered on

- New ideas
- Implementation
- Reflection
- Discussion

You can choose the best way for you to journal/reflect on successes, challenges, practices, and feelings throughout the year.

Next Steps

- Consider any additions or modifications you want to make on your syllabi for fall.
- Save the dates for our NFA Sessions, Sept – Dec, Feb - May
- Choose a tool for your ongoing reflection
- See you on September 23rd at 9 am! Calendar invite will be sent through outlook.

Have a Great First Week!
