

Program Review

Purpose

"Program review is the process through which constituencies (not only faculty) on campus take stock of their successes and shortcomings and seek to identify ways in which they can meet their goals more effectively. It is important to note here that the task of identifying evidence-based successful practices, and sharing these practices college-wide, is far more important than the negative perspective of trying to ferret out ineffective practices" – Academic Senate for California Community Colleges

GENERAL PROGRAM QUESTIONS

Name of Program (Academic Programs should be listed per discipline):
Studio Arts

Please provide a brief description and any significant change in your program since the last Program Review cycle.

Wow! COVID! The Art History portion of our program has been turned on its head. We traditionally had most of our students taking art history classes in person but now are signing up for the online art history courses way more often. We also began to offer a variety of modalities for art history courses including asynchronous online and hybrid courses as well as 8-week and 12-week courses in addition to the traditional 16-week courses. Many art history courses have switched to using OERs with more courses being converted this academic year. We have found that it is harder and harder to find qualified part time faculty who are willing to teach in-person art history courses.

Studio art courses are filling well as students are very happy to be back in the studio. We do anticipate some significant changes to the studio art beginning Fall 2025 when these courses will no longer fulfill the Arts and Humanities GE requirement with the implementation of CAL-GETC. The impact is yet to be determined.

We were able to have many of our departmental events once again. These include the annual Student Art Show which was held again in 2022 after a two-year hiatus, the Holiday Art Sale which was canceled in Fall 2020, and exhibitions in our on-campus Art Gallery which opened with a Faculty Art Show after being closed from Spring 2020 to Summer 2022. Over 200 people attended the opening of the Student Art Show in Spring 2022 and over 100 artworks by our students were on display. Throughout COVID, we held our guest artist lecture series on Zoom which proved to be very popular with students. We had an average attendance of 50-100 at each talk.

We have been busy updating our curriculum and adding new courses. We began offering new courses such as: Art G108 Color Theory in Spring 2022, Art G127 Art of the Ancient Americas in Spring 2020, and Art G128 Arts of Africa, Oceania, and Indigenous North America in Fall 2022. We have also written curriculum for the following new courses: Art G139 The History of Graphic Design, Art G123 Race and Ethnicity in American Art, Art G135 Women in Art, Art G001N Ceramics for Life-Long Learners, and a series of craft-based courses including Art G159 Introduction to Crafts, Art G160 Jewelry and Metalsmithing 1, Art G161 Jewelry and Metalsmithing 2, and Art G167 Fiber Arts 1.

We undertook the large task of updating our articulation agreements in Fall 2020 and have updated agreements with 26 four-year universities: CSU Channel Islands; CSU Dominguez Hills; CSU Hayward; CSU Fresno; CSU Fullerton; CSU Monterey Bay; CSU San Bernardino; CSU Bakersfield; CSU Los Angeles; CSU Long Beach; CSU Northridge; Humboldt State; San Diego State; San Jose State; San Francisco State; UC Berkeley; UC Merced; UC Davis; UC Santa Cruz; UC Los Angeles; UC Irvine; UC Santa Barbara; UC San Diego; UC Riverside; Cal Poly Pomona; Cal Poly SLO.

Lastly, we also have been actively working on the remodel of our building which first began in Spring 2020.

What are your program's strengths? (Answers could include but not limited to KPI data)

Our enrollment is slightly up from last year and are holding steady for retention of students. In addition, we are very hands on with our students. We meet individually with our students on a regular basis. We have a packet for our majors to help walk through the program and jobs in the field of art and art history. We hand out hundreds to students and perspective students each year. We arrange to have our area counselor, Damien Jordan, to come to our classes to talk to them about the program and transferring along with having mini appointments here in our building to ensure we are getting our students through the transfer process as quickly and as painlessly as possible. We use various social media outlets and the GWC app to keep students updated about our events and departmental news.

We continue to develop our curriculum based on student needs by writing courses and offering new courses such as those noted above. We have worked to update all our degrees and classes to be in line with the State, C-ID, and our sister colleges. We also are in the process of updating articulation agreements and in the past two years have updated 26 articulation agreements with various four-year universities. We are waiting to hear back on a final 6 universities in order to finish this project this academic year.

What are the challenges for your program? (If there are regulations or requirements for your program that require additional support, please note those here)

Our program faces staffing challenges. We need an additional full-time instructor in Drawing, Painting, Life Drawing, and 2D Design to be adequately staffed at this point. With only 2 full-time studio art faculty, we have at least 14 classes each semester that no full-time faculty teach, and we end up relying on part-time faculty to maintain the curriculum, oversee classroom resources (such as supplies, equipment, and booking and managing art models), and managing student artwork. Without an additional full-time faculty member, we face great challenges finding part time faculty who have the necessary area specialty. In 2020, we lost our longstanding part-time 2D Design instructor to COVID and our Life Drawing Instructor moved on to another opportunity. As a result, we have had tremendous difficulty finding a replacement for those core course areas and we have had to cancel several classes due to lack of qualified faculty.

Art History is suffering similarly for lack of staffing. Many part-time faculty are not willing to teach in person. While we normally have a good stable group of instructors fewer and fewer will teach in person courses for us which is creating a very difficult staffing issue.

Our classes, especially Art G100, suffered from a large amount of fraudulent student enrollments. Some classes lost 20-40 students per section, especially over the summer, which directly impacted our overall numbers. We are having an especially large drop rate and high numbers of No Shows from second 8 week students and late-start summer school courses.

Our building is also a challenging issue, and it is no longer state-of-the-art. It is aging and many things no longer work such as curtains in the Drawing and Painting studio classrooms, windows that are rusting out in many of the classrooms -- there is only so much lipstick you can add to a pig. That said, we are excited to have the challenge of the upcoming building remodel.

Describe any trends and contributing factors related to enrollment, retention, and success for this past cycle.

We are still recovering from COVID. We are learning what the students want and trying to do our best to adapt to changing student populations and needs. We are slowly bringing our numbers up in all areas in enrollment, retention, and success.

How does your department/program support the goals of diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility? (Answers could include but not limited to gaps in success data, modality of course offerings, part/length of term (full-term, non full-term, etc.)

This year we have eliminated all materials fees in studio art classes for our students by covering material costs through the Lottery funds. This allows our studio art classes to be offered at a much lower cost to a potential $0 cost to students. Ceramics students has tools provided for students, so they do not need to purchase those on their own. Many studio art and art history courses use OERs, and we are close to having our three degrees be ZTC programs.

Art history courses are now being offered at a variety of lengths including 16-, 12-, and 8-week versions during the regular semester and 6-week and 4-week courses during the summer and winter terms. We have also introduced a diverse range of art history offering including courses on the art of Mesoamerica and the Andes, Africa, Oceania, and North America as well as new courses that focus women in art and race and ethnicity in American art. We feel these courses will offer a broader selection of classes to better appeal to our diverse student population.

We have also purchased several frames to provide to students who would like to enter their work into the annual Student Art Show. This lessens the burden of needing to purchase a frame and allows more students to enter the show.

Our guest art lecture series has also featured artists from diverse backgrounds and career paths. During COVID we started offering these online and they have proven to be very popular. Attendance at each range from 50-100.

Our Art Gallery has begun to hold shorter exhibitions that align with various heritage month celebrations. The first of which was Spring 2023 when we held the pop-up exhibition, "Coin of Light.," in honor of Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month. This Fall, for the start of Hispanic Heritage Month, "Rasquachismo: Lower Riders Can and Do Resist" opened and this coming Spring we'll have exhibitions that align with Black History, Women's History, and Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Months. In conjunction with the exhibitions, gallery talks and artists lectures are held on Zoom and in person. Tours are also given through the year to classes.

How does your department/program collaborate with other areas on campus to advance student success?

We work closely with our area counselor, Damien Jordan, and have him come to our classes to speak to students, and hold 1:1 counseling in our department without an appointment. In addition, we will again schedule time with the counseling department to help answer any questions they have about our curriculum to help better direct students to our classes.

The Art Gallery exhibitions are also a place where we connect with other areas on campus. For examples, we are currently working with PUENTE as part of our current Art Gallery exhibition celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month.

On the occasion of Dawn Brooks' Fall Faculty Recital, "Beau Soir," art history faculty Monica Jovanovich presented a slideshow of early 20th century painters whose work aligned with one of the selected pieces by Francis Poulenc.

Art department faculty also participate at Fall Kick Off and Goldchella events as well as serve of key college committees such as IPD, DEAC, CCI, and Senate. We also hope to offer sessions at the CIL and continue our involvement with that important campus resource and participate in an upcoming Flex Day with a session incorporating art into lectures across many disciplines.

How does your department/program utilize technology to support student success?

All courses utilize Canvas for our students to access their assignments and grades.

Do any of the courses in your program have a CTE TOP code?
No

AWARDS

What type of awards does your program offer?

□ Certificates

□ Associate Dress for Transfer

Please provide the information for the number of awards for Associate Degrees (CCI-approved), Associate Degrees for Transfer (State-approved), and Certificates of Achievement for this program. Please put N/A if an area is not applicable for your program.

	3 years ago	2 years ago	1 year ago
Associate Degrees	45	45	38
Associate Degrees for Transfer	41	58	46

Please comment on the trends for the number of awards. You may then comment on any other relevant information provided by the Office of Research and Planning, and Institutional Effectiveness (ORPIE).

While our number of degrees awarded went down last year, we are not discouraged by the slightly lower numbers. Our students are still playing catch up from not being in the studios during COVID.

FTES and FTEF

Program Review Request

Instruction

For the below questions, please provide your FTES (full-time-equivalent students, resident) divided by your FTEF (full-time-equivalent faculty). Please submit your rates from three years ago, two years ago, and this past year.

Please note: For programs with earned credit please use FTES (Res)/FTEF. For non-credit, please use FTES (Total)/FTEF.

	3 years ago	2 years ago	1 year ago (this past year)
FTES/FTEF Ratio:	34	31	30

Outside of hiring new faculty or staff, please discuss the data trends above, and your plans for serving more students.

Three years ago all of our courses - studio art and art history - had been switched to online and we had high enrollments in our art history courses to bring up our numbers. Last year, our students finally came back to campus, and we started working on having a better student-to-faculty ratio in the classrooms. We are adding more classes and updating courses to better suit our current students' interests. This has resulted in offering Darkroom Photography only once per year and instead offering more sections of Digital Photography, adding Sculpture back into the schedule, and adding a series of craft-based courses which includes Jewelry 1 & 2, Fiber Art, and Introduction to Crafts, all courses that students have been asking for.

GOALS FROM PREVIOUS PROGRAM REVIEW CYCLE

Please refer to your previous Program Review cycle and summarize all outcomes for each goal.

Summary and Outcomes of Previous Goals (from the last Program Review) including resource requests and if they were funded or not.

Past Program Review Goals

- 1) Hire a Full Time Faculty Member We requested a hire for a full-time faculty member who could teach Drawing, Painting, Life Drawing, and 2D Design. While the request was not approved, we stay hopeful that it may be granted in the future.
- 2) Increase number of majors in our ADTs (Studio Art and Art History) and increase enrollment of non-traditional students in our courses While the number of degrees granted last year did fall from the year before, we are hopeful that as students return to in person classes, those numbers will rise. We will continue our outreach as well. Additionally, we are developing non-credit courses and new credit courses that will drive enrollment.
- 3) Increase student success and retention among DI groups, namely African American and Latinx students We have worked to reduce the economic impact of our courses through the elimination or reduction of material fees in studio art courses and the adoption of OERs in art history courses. Additionally, we have lowered barriers to students when participating in our annual Student Art Show. Additionally full-time faculty have attended DEIA-focused professional development opportunities, including the Data Coaching program in 2022-2023. We have created more diverse course offerings, guest speakers, and Art Gallery exhibitions.
- 4) Renovate the Art department building We have begun to have talks about the building remodel and are finalizing the design.
- 5) Continue to add new courses based on student needs, revise current courses and programs, and update articulating agreements We have worked diligently to keep our curriculum updated and develop new courses that are both in line with C-ID/the District and students' needs. We have written curriculum for new courses including those that are craft-based as outline in our last Program Review. All of our courses have been updated within their 5-year period and our three degrees are currently being updated for a Fall 2025 effective date. We are keeping a watchful eye on upcoming changes to our studio courses as a result of CAL-GETC and our GE offerings. Since Fall 2020, we have updated articulation agreements with over 25 4-year colleges and will continue to do so.

Equipment Requests

- 1) Kiln Replacement -
- 2) Pug Mill -

Faculty Request

1) Full Time Faculty Member for Drawing, Painting, Life Drawing, and 2D Design - Not awarded
